

60th ISI World Statistics Congress
Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
26-31 July 2015

Submission of Contributed Papers/Posters (CPS)

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION IS 13 FEBRUARY 2015.

The ISI invites the world's statistical community (broadly defined) to submit abstracts and papers for proposed presentation at the Contributed Paper/Poster Sessions (CPS) as part of the Scientific Programme of the 60th World Statistics Congress (WSC). The WSC aims to reach out to researchers and practitioners in all areas of Statistics for sharing and exchanging latest insights in their work. The Scientific Programme of the 60th WSC is being developed with the diverse interests of the ISI members and the international community in mind.

The submission of contributed papers for both oral and poster presentation is open until 13 February 2015. The guidelines for preparing abstracts and papers, as well as templates for MS-Word and Latex are available at the Guidelines Menu item on the left hand side of the WSC main page (www.isi2015.org). Please follow the instructions and make sure that you use the templates provided.

For the submission to be considered by the Local Programme Committee (LPC), it should include a title, an abstract and a short paper no more than 6 pages long. Only pdf versions of the abstract and paper files will be accepted by the submission system.

Once accepted, a contributed paper will be listed in the programme and presented in one of the following three modes:

- (a) Oral Presentation. The speaker will have 15 minutes to present the paper in one of the Contributed Paper Sessions.
- (b) Poster Presentation. The presenter will have a space to display his/her poster for one day, and should be available at the designated date/time for on-spot discussion.
- (c) Poster-Plus Presentation. The presenter will have a space to display his/her poster for one day, and should be available at the designated date/time for on spot discussion. In addition, the presenter will have an oral spotlight presentation of 5 minutes on a platform in the same hall of poster-display to advertise his/her poster.
